

A new way to advance medicine, straight from your office.

Help researchers support enrollment efforts and find new solutions to treat symptoms or even prevent disease. From healthy volunteers to those with specific symptoms or conditions, we are actively enrolling for clinical trials... and there is something in it for everyone.

Want to participate in clinical research without all the paperwork, meetings and headaches? Do you know patients who want to make a positive impact on medicine? Our Medical Partnership Program may set that in motion for you and your staff.

CONSIDER OUR MEDICAL PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

What your patients get:

- Access to potential therapies not widely available
- Possible compensation for travel and time
- The knowledge that no stone is being left unturned in finding a solution to meet their needs
- All study-related procedures provided at no cost

What you get:

- New ways to help your patients, with minimal time commitment from you
- Increased practice revenue
- Access to novel research insights before they are published
- The chance to advance medicine and make a positive difference
